Polynesian Dance Class Agreement 2013

TUITION – Must be paid at the first class of the month _____ INITIAL

ATTENDANCE – If you cannot attend class for any reason please try to let Heather or me know at least an hour before _____ INITIAL

BASICS - Basics are reviewed the first week of every month. Basics are also done the beginning of every class for warm-ups _____ INITIAL

CLASS Participation and attitude – Please ask questions in class and don't be hesitant on trying the dances _____ INITIAL

SHOWS Participation and attitude in – We will make sure you have good knowledge of a dance before you perform it in any show. _____ INITIAL

I understand you may have other commitments outside of dance. Just let us know. You will be required to purchase costumes and/or any implements to perform. We understand you cannot purchase everything at once. Purchase what you can when you are able. Heather will assist you on this.

Implements – Uli'ulis, ipu, pu'ilis, poi balls (Maori), candles (The Philippines)

Lei sets and flowers – white ginger lei set, fern lei set, pink lei set, shell leis, Maori dress set, headband (Maori), tiki god (Maori), red hibiscus flower clip, yellow hibiscus flower clip, etc.

Costumes – Red aloha dress, blue aloha dress, white pa'u skirt, black pa'u skirt, white pareo (short and long – keikis only need short), piupiu skirt (Maori), kimona (The Philippines), Bora Bora Blue Pareo, Tahitian garden Pareo, etc.

You may NOT use the music or the dances you have learned in my class for any kind of performance without MY PERMISSION. _____ INITIAL

This is the first step to becoming part of Kealoha And Company "Expressions of Polynesia".

When I feel you are ready I will request you to be a part of the Performance Class. If you ever you feel you are ready please let me know. I will let you try the Performance Class for a month to see if you are ready to handle the commitment. You will have to pay the tuition for the Performance Class.

Mahalo and Aloha,
Auntie Josie "Kealoha"
